

132 FW Operational Readiness Exercise

Deployment Details

6-8 August 2010

It is your sole responsibility to ensure you are ready

If there is anything contained in this deployment information list you do not understand contact your Unit Deployment Manager for assistance. Ensure all your personnel actions required (i.e., new ID cards, dog tags made, update/change emergency data card) are accomplished prior to your scheduled unit assembly time.

Special Interest Items:*Required Processing*PDF Process*Prohibited Items*Security*FPCON Info*Bus Schedule*Base X Info

An inspector may ask you to open your duffle bag/suitcase so that an inventory can be accomplished, verifying that you have the minimum clothing requirements. So be prepared. Please ensure that you have your bag marked visibly with your name. You must follow the instructions for filling out your military baggage tags during processing. 72 HOUR BAGS WILL NOT BE USED, AND THE ONLY BAG YOU NEED TO PROCESS WITH IS YOUR ONE PERSONAL BAG WITH ALL CLOTHING REQUIREMENTS IN IT. NO OTHER BAGS WILL BE ALLOWED IN THE PDF. If tasked to process through the PDF, it is highly recommended using a military type duffle bag/mobility bag; it will be easier for the baggage team handle.

ATTITUDE COUNTS

Display a good attitude, demonstrate customs and courtesies, be a team player, heed the feedback from the evaluators, adapt to the changes, and overcome the obstacles. Learn so we can succeed as a Unit!

REPORTING INSTRUCTIONS AT DES MOINES

Unit member's workday will be directed by supervisor. During personnel processing, the Commanders Senior Staff will determine your specific report times at Base X based on the length of the workday.
